

Réf. E7562 -

Period : 17th C.
Material : STONE
Type : STATUE
Style : EGYPTIAN
Length : 136

Pair of Sphinxes.

Imposing stone sculptures in the image of a Sphinx and a Sphinx.

Represented lying down, they wear a Nemes, the headdress of the pharaohs from the Old Kingdom to the Ptolemaic period.

Symbol of power and vigilance in ancient Egypt, these mythological sculptures represented a lion with a human head.

17th century.

Limestone.

Each statue is made up of two blocks.